Judges Interview: Faye Head, Rally

What Did You Think of the Overall Performance?

I was impressed with the dog and handlers at the rally trial at the Australian Cattle Dog National Specialty in October. It was clear from the first team to the last team that this was a group of seasoned and experienced handlers. The dogs were well trained and alert.

What Did You Like Best about Judging at National?

First of all, I love national specialty shows. You get to see multiples of a breed, the handlers clearly love their breed and are just happy to be there. That being said, the Australian Cattle Dog National Specialty was probably the happiest group of folks I have run into at any specialty. The handlers had fun so the dogs had fun and the judge and stewards had fun. It was a great day.

Do You Have Any Advice on Improving Communication Between Handlers and Their Dogs?

Again, this was a seasoned and experienced group of handlers with an intelligent, alert breed so I really don't have any advice in this area.

Your Thoughts on the Team Rally?

a) was this the first time I had judged in ballet wear -- Yes, it was the first time. (I am sure that is not a huge surprise). And, it was fun and for a good cause. I heard that over $1,000 was raised for that child and I was honored to be a part of that.

b) how did the dogs react? -- I had one little love nip from one of the dogs but most of them didn't seem to notice. I did see a few of them look at me and look at their handlers as to say, "you know that woman is crazy don't you?"

Again, thanks for a great assignment ~ Faye Head
